General Information

- Membership runs from July to June of the following year.
- Renewal fees are payable annually between July and January.
- Fees must be paid before the end of January; otherwise, membership lapses.
- Any new applications and fees received between July and January will apply to the current July to June period.
- Any new applications and fees received between February and June will apply to the current July to June period - rings may still be ordered until the renewal deadline in the next January.
- If you are affiliated with SASPO through another club, only the Annual Membership Fee is payable.
- If you are affiliated with SASPO through this club, the Annual Membership Fee and the Annual SASPO Affiliation Fee are payable.
- Poultry Shows are held throughout the year, but mainly between March and June.
- All poultry that are to be entered in a show (except Agricultural Shows) must be ringed with a SASPO poultry ring.
- Poultry rings are ordered tri-annually, and the Ring Master will inform members when to order.
- Official SASPO rings may only be issued to SASPO members and are for identification purposes and not an indication of quality.
- SASPO and SARBA Honorary Members do not pay any fees, but SARBA Honorary Members must pay the SASPO Affiliation Fee.

Declaration of Applicant
